THIS Property IS OFFERED "AS IS, WHERE IS, WITH ALL FAULTS." Broker is advising reader to conduct its own independent evaluation, valuation and assessment of the business.

SYNOPSIS

- A fantastic chance to own and run a multipurpose retail/flex building in the lively community of Mesquite, Texas.
- This one-of-a-kind property provides a seamless blend of commercial and industrial functioning, making it an ideal location for adaptive re-use and catering to a variety of business demands.
- The property, which sits on a big 2.75-acre lot, has a spacious truck and equipment court and plenty of opportunity for outdoor storage or extra construction.
- The building provides an efficient layout for seamless operations and convenient access to key transit routes such as I-30, with 10 grade level doors and 2 gated entries to the property.

SYNOPSIS

- This unique offering is distinguished by an optimal combination of office and warehouse space, resulting in a dynamic environment for a wide range of industries, including manufacturing, logistics, and more. Furthermore, the structure has a significant quantity of shop space both within and outside the structure, allowing for a variety of commercial applications.
- The property takes full advantage of the additional area, allowing unlimited opportunities for customization or expansion, emphasizing the potential for outdoor storage space. This characteristic, in conjunction with its strategic location, makes it a highly sought-after asset in the Garland, Texas market.

- Currently zoned Z31 - Mesquite's special Gus Thomasson corridor zoning.
- The city is highly interested in new ownership that will invest in renovating the property as part of their wider drive to rehabilitate the Gus Thomasson corridor, according to conversations with the city's EDC.
- The City's EDC recently proved its willingness to support these initiatives by committing huge sums of money to developers on a street less than half a mile away!
- For serious buyers, we can help facilitate conversations with the city's EDC and/or planning and zoning committee.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
